

Gaston Arts Integration Nurtures Success

What is GAINS?

GAINS is a partnership between Gaston County Schools, the United Arts Council of Gaston County, and the North Carolina Blumenthal Performing Arts Center's Education Institute. GAINS employs skilled artists, working alongside teachers, to improve student learning through active participation in the classroom.

What is GAINS' Primary Goal?

GAINS' primary goal is to strengthen classroom teaching and student learning through integration of the arts into the elementary school curriculum, with a focus on literacy and language arts skills.
